Europe's View of the Reported Russo

Turkish Treaty. In spite of the denials, official and semiofficial, that have been made from many quarters, the report of the offensive and defensive alliance between Russia and Turkey, which was printed in The Star Thursday, is not viewed with entire incredulity. Special dispatches published by the London newspapers from the European capitals, notably from Berlin, Paris and Vienna, show a tendency to admit the possibility that a Russo-Turkish treaty has been concluded. It is pointed out with obvious plausibility that Turkey's impecuniosity may have driven her to seek an alliance as a means of obtaining a loan, as was the case recently with China. If such a treaty has in fact been concluded, it is certain that the fact will be kept secret until the last moment. So far there has been no authentic confirmation of the report from any

THE OFFICIAL WEATHER MAP.

EXPLANATORY NOTE: Observations taken at S a.m., 75th meridian time. Solid lines are 189 bars or lines of equal air pressure, drawn for each tenth of ar inch. Dotted lines are isotherms or lines of equal 'emperature, drawn for each ten degrees. Shaded areas are regions where rain or snow has fallen during preceding twelve hours. The words "High" and "Low" show location of areas of high and low barometer. Small arrows fly with the wind.

A FAIR SUNDAY.

That is What is Predicted by the Weather Bureau for Tomorrow. Forecast till 8 p.m. Sunday.-For the District of Columbia, Delaware and Maryland, fair tonight and Sunday; westerly winds. For Virginia, fair tonight and Sunday;

Weather conditions and general forecast. -The storm has advanced to the lower lake region and New England, with one storm center in Ontario and a second center on the Massachusetts coast. It has been attended by rain or snow in New England, the middle states and the lake regions, with northeasterly gales on the New England coast. An area of high pressure covers the Rocky mountain slope, being highest in Manitoha, where the temperature is about 30 degrees below zero. The pressure has fallen in New England and risen in all other districts, especially on the northern Rocky mountain slope. The temperature has been about stationary in all districts, except on the middle and south Atlantic coast, where it is cooler. The weather will clear tonight in New England, and it will be generally fair Sunday in the Atlantic states. Threatening weather, with possibly light showers, is indicated for the east gulf states tonight. It will be slightly cooler in the Atlantic and gulf states by Sunday night.

The following heavy precipitation (in inches) was reported during the past twenty-four hours: Boston, 1.40; Portland, Me., 1.16.

THE WEATHER FORECASTS BY FLAG SIGNALS.

WHITE BLUE Local rain Cold wave.

The flags are holsted each day upon the issue of the morning weather map and float until dark. They indicate the weather that may be expected during the following thirty-six hours, but more particularly the last twenty four hours of that period. They are to be read from the top of the staff downward. If more than one kind of weather is predicted for the period from 8 p.m. to 8 p.m. the conditions first named in the forecast will be represented by the uppermost flag. When a warning of s "cold wave" is included in the forecast message, the cold-wave flag will be displayed below the proper weather flag.

Explanation of the Flags.

The temperature flag, when placed above numbers 1, 2 or 3, indicates warmer weather; when placed below numbers 1, 2 or 3, indicates colder weather; when not displayed, the indications are that the temperature will remain stationary.

The police on duty last night report the night as being cloudy until about 11 o'clock, when it became clear; two prisoners and seventeen lodgers at the station house. Arthur and Mary Quill, colored, arrested by Officer Deane, charged with stealing a dress from Mary Martin, were fined $5 each or thirty days in the work house. James, alias Barney, Richards and Samuel Lamb, arrested by Officer Atkinson, charged with being suspicious characters, were dismissed with a reprimand. Augustus Dean, arrested by Officer Howson, charged with assault ed by Officer Howson, charged with assault on Mackle Patton, dismissed with a repri-mand owing to his youth. Charles Wink-field, arrested by Officer Young, charged with assault on Martha Johnson, November 11, 1895, was fined $5. Benjamin Waters, jr., arrested by Officer Atkinson, charged with assault on Henry Washington, colwith assault on Henry Washington, colored, was dismissed for want of evidence.

School Board Meeting. There was a called meeting of the city school board held last night at Peabody school building to investigate the rumors that have been in circulation in this city about Mr. Wm. H. Greenwell, associate principal of Washington School. Col. Francis L. Smith presided over the meeting. Mr. Greenwell appeared before the board and denied the charges in toto. The board decided to take no action in the matter at present, and adjourned until next Thursday night, when all persons who have charges to prefer will be heard.

Funeral Service.

The funeral of the late E. Chauncey Davis took place from his home on North Alfred street yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. H. Butler of the Baptist Church, and were attended by the Odd Fellows, Red Men and the Friendship and Third Virginia Regiment Drum Corps, and a large number of the friends of the deceased. The pallbearers were Messrs. A. J. Ballinger, Charles Kans, V. E. Dement, A. J. Mulling, Lewis McDaniel and M. S. Keen. The interment was in the Methodist Protestant cemetery. ed by the Rev. J. H. Butler of the Baptist Protestant cemetery. Captured at Last.

Charles Winkfield, colored, who has been evading the police since the 11th of November last, was yesterday afternoon arrested by Officer Young on a warrant charging him with having assaulted and beaten a colored woman named Martha Washington. Last night, at a special session of the police court, he was brought before Mayor Thompson, but the case had evidently gone wrong, as the woman said that he was only playing with her. Officer Young testified that upon the night of the 11th of November there was a genuine fight between the two. The mayor imposed a fine of $5 or thirty days on the gape. thirty days on the gang. They Got the Fruit.

The boys in the neighborhood of Fairfax and Wilkes streets yesterday thought that Christmas had come again, judging from the amount of fruit, etc., at their disposal, February 2, at 3 o'clock, closing meeting in the Calvary Baptist Church.

At tomorrow's mass meeting it is expected that Mother Prindle of New York will be present and deliver the address, to be assisted by Mrs. Kate W. Barrett and Mrs. Charlton Edholm. Madam Antoinette Sterling, who sang for the world's W. C. T. U. convention, in London, is also expected to attend the meeting. The Y choir in caps and gowns will lead the congregational singing. for the New York Fruit Store wagon broke down at the corner of Fairfax and Wilkes streets, scattering bananas and other fruits, with which it was loaded, in all directions, and the boys were not slow in taking advantage of it.

The charitable societies of the churches are now having very heavy demands made upon them for aid. Mrs. Niles and her daughter, Miss Violet, who have been the guests of Mrs. W. B. Daingerfield of this city, left for Washing-ton yesterday evening, where they will spend the winter. spend the winter.
